

Summary of the Amateur Boxing Competition Rules

Amateur boxing competitions in Curaçao can only be organized by and/or under the auspices of CuraBox. For safety reasons, these must be conducted under the supervision of competition officials (referees, judges, time-keeper), ring doctor, first aid, right protective equipment, and according to the class divisions for equivalent matches.

Age Classification by year of birth; Cadets 2014-2015, Scholars 2012-2013, Juniors 2010-2011, Youth 2008-2009 and Elite born in 2007 (the year one turns 19) and older.

Weight Classes in kg.; -50,-55,-60,-65,-70,-75,-80,-85,-90, 90+

Weigh-In & medical examination same day as the bout.

If both parties, supervisor & CuraBox agree, a boxer can compete in a single bout against a boxer from a class higher. In case of age class difference, according to the rules of the youngest age class of both (duration, headgear, etc.).

A distinction can be made between novices and experienced competitive boxers.

Male vs Female is NOT possible in official bouts.

Duration.

A bout lasts 3 rounds. The round duration depends on age class; cadets 1 minute, scholars 1.5 minute, juniors 2 minutes, and youth and elite 3 minutes. The rest period between rounds is 1 minute in all cases.

Boxer's uniform and equipment

- Boxing gloves and headgear in the color of the corner. Men elite & youth +70 kg 12 oz., all other 10 oz.

- Elite men NO headgear, all other divisions MUST wear headgear.
